DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 05/21/2007 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

A. Claim 7 is unclear. Under what conditions is the stability to be determined? For example, is the compound in a sealed container, or is it exposed to air, and if so, of what relative humidity? The traverse is unpersuasive. The declaration is unpersuasive.

Declarant states: "This study was done as per the International Conference on Harmonized (ICH) guideline for stability testing of new drug substances and products (Q1A (R2))." This statement is demonstrably false, and hence the declaration cannot be relied upon. The specification, page 27, states that the testing was done for 90 days, which is almost 3 months. However, the ICH guideline, supplied by applicants, states that the testing is done at 75%±5% RH for 6 months. Applicants clearly did not use a standard protocol, and hence one of ordinary skill in the art cannot determine what conditions were used and are thus the conditions of claim 7. If the testing had been done in the specification for 6 months, one of ordinary skill in the art could have assumed that the ICH standards were used, and would then have assumed that 75%±5% RH conditions were employed. However, since the conditions were not used, one of ordinary skill in the art cannot not make any such assumption.

B. The new figure of "87%" stable is not correct. Page 27 says "a drop in assay from 94% to 87%". Thus, 87% is a measure of purity, not a measure of stability. If the material had been 100% pure to begin with, then of course stability and purity would mean the same thing, but the material was only 94% pure.

Claim Objections

Claim 8 objected to because of the following informalities: The two new words are run-ons. Each should be separated into two words as is done correctly with all the other choices. Appropriate correction is required.

All claims are drawn to the same invention claimed in the application prior to the entry of the submission under 37 CFR 1.114 and could have been finally rejected on the grounds and art of record in the next Office action if they had been entered in the application prior to entry under 37 CFR 1.114. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL even though it is a first action after the filing of a request for continued examination and the submission under 37 CFR 1.114. See MPEP § 706.07(b). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within

Art Unit: 1624

TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
